Invitation to Conversare at the Market Precinct

Conversare (Latin: con versare - to turn or to dance together) is a calm space for rich connecting face to face in a public place.

You are invited to the next evening of good connecting, fun and fine food. This is held in a public place and anyone who wishes to join in is most welcome.

Bearing in mind that Conversare is:

- an experience of close relating with people who we may not know.
- a space for people of all backgrounds to connect well and have fun together.
- for all present to feel welcome and thoroughly included.
- an opportunity for participants to engage in conversations that have heart and meaning.
- a context in which you don't need to come with a friend, or be a member of special interest group.
- the purpose is to build bridges and become aware of what it means to be a full participant.

Do you welcome the idea of joining with friendly spirits in conversation and fun?

Whoever comes are the right people.

Bookings Essential. Places are reserved in the order received.

Booking registration of $15 through Eventbrite.com.au at Conversare

You pay separately at the café for your food and drinks order.
