

Social events in the Adelaide Central Market Thursday 30 May & Tuesday 25 June 2019

Do you like to join in 'good talk'?

Is this missing in your life? Too much looking at screens and too little connecting with lively people?

If so these hosted events are for you. For the main activity is talking to another person, over a fine meal, to learn about each other's lives and interests. With the opportunity to connect with others too, both before and after the meal time.

Called Conversare (pronounced Conversari) from the Latin con versare - to turn or to dance together these are conversational gatherings in public places in which anyone who wishes to join can come along to meet and greet. You are welcome whatever your background, education or age.

Once you choose your dinner – kindly provided by Lucia's Pizza & Spaghetti Bar – you find someone you have not met before to share the mealtime together. Everybody present does the same. Everyone participates fully by being curious and interested about their dinner partner. Who could be particularly keen to come along?

These forthcoming events are mainly for residents in high rise apartments in the CBD of Adelaide. Particularly, but not only, if you live alone. These places are within easy walking distance.

Among the people who organise and host the events are some who have lived in Hong Kong. They have experienced how difficult it is to get to know others in these kind of dwellings. And also for newcomers to Adelaide, including international students.
